When...

One Of A Kind...

Is Hard To Find.

Glossary

MEDITERRANEAN - Echoes architectural elements from Classical Empires of Rome and Greece. High amount of mouldings, corbels, and ornate carved details. Arched displays and strong wood profiles.

TRADITIONAL - Emulating a range of European and Early American woodworking. Moulding placement is similar to Mediterranean, but more conservative and always elegant.

CONTEMPORARY - Consists of the Modern period to the ultra high tech look of now. Minimal to no mouldings, clean crisp lines-straight or curved. Can combine multiple materials, works well asymmetrically.

TRANSITIONAL - Ideal for the eclectic. Able to combine architectural elements from all styles.

PRICING AND BUDGETING:

All these terms are pertaining to your future masterpiece of furniture. These are the dominant styles found in South Florida with many more available to you. Choose which distinction you gravitate towards and tell us your functional requirements—We'll handle the rest!

REMEMBER THAT STYLE DICTATES PRICE AND STYLE IS COMPRISED OF A FEW MAIN FACTORS SUCH AS:

- AMOUNT OF MOULDINGS INCORPORATED
- TYPE OF FINISH YOU FIND APPEALING
- SPECIES OF WOOD THAT COMPLIMENTS YOUR DECOR
- AMOUNT OF MOVING PARTS OR EXTRAS
- NUMBER OF WALLS TO BE ADDRESSED
- CURVED DOORS & MOULDINGS
- INLAYS & SPECIALTY MATERIALS
